2,500 PERSONS ARE HOMELESS following a wind-swept fire which destroyed one-third of Rimouski, Quebec, an industrial town of 15,000. Loss is estimated at $20,000,000.

Will Western Europe Fight?

France Has Defeatist Mind, Lacks Will To Defend Self

(CHAPTER II)
By KINGSBURY SMITH
European General Manager,
International News Service

France, frequently called the key to the security of Western Europe, lacks today the will to fight even in its own defense.

It is considered by Atlantic Pact military strategists to be one of the countries in Western Europe that would offer little resistance if Russia suddenly launched a major military offensive against the West.

This defeatism is based chiefly on the fear of the French people that their defense position is hopeless and will remain so for a number of years to come.

War weariness in the French character and the undermining effects of the Communist peace propaganda campaign also have contributed to the spirit of defeatism.

Thousands of French workers have signed Communist petitions promising not to resist the Russian armies if they should invade France.

A French cavalry second lieutenant said: "Soldiers as well as officers are fully aware that the Russians could not be stopped if they attacked France. We all feel that it would be useless to resist."

An army captain on leave from the occupation forces in Germany said he and his colleagues thought that if war comes, France would be occupied quickly by Communist guerrilla fighters supplied by the Russians and reinforced by Soviet airborne divisions.

"Not only is most of the equipment obsolete and our air force virtually non-existent, but we feel that there is nothing in Western Europe that could stop the 100 or 150 divisions which Russia could throw against us," this captain said.

Barkley To Set Gambling Probe

Veep Will Name Senate Committee

WASHINGTON, May 9—(AP)—Only a signal from Vice President Barkley is needed now to launch a nation-wide investigation of crime and organized gambling.

The signal will be Barkley's appointment of a five-man special committee. And Senator Kefauver (D-Tenn.), slated by Democratic Senate leaders to head the investigation group, said he expects this announcement tomorrow.

"We'll be ready to start hearings two weeks after Barkley appoints the committee membership," Kefauver told a reporter.

There was considerable speculation as to Barkley's probable choice of Senators—three Democrats and two Republicans—to carry on the inquiry.

Sen. Lucas has said Barkley may name the Republicans on the basis of their seniority on the commerce and judiciary committees. This would throw the prize appointments to Senators Tobey of New Hampshire and Wiley of Wisconsin.

But one Democratic Senator interested in the inquiry said he hopes Barkley will name Senator Ferguson (R-Mich.) or Senator Donnell (R-Mo.) as an investigator. Republican leaders would prefer to have Ferguson and Donnell as the GOP's representatives because of their experience in the investigating field.

Soviet Takes 24th Walk From A UN Group

BANGKOK, May 9—(AP)—Russia today walked out of a United Nations committee where it had expected to win a seat for Red China.

The Russian delegate stalked out when the committee refused to take up a Soviet resolution calling for unseating the Nationalist China delegate and seating of the Communist China representative.

It was the first meeting of the industry and trade session. It was the 24th and last of the major United Nations bodies from which the Soviets have walked out.

Development Of West Promised In Truman Talk

Backs Brannan Plan; Scoffs At Those Who Cry 'Socialism'

ABOARD TRUMAN TRAIN, May 9—(AP)—President Truman declared today his administration will push the development of the west over the opposition of "reactionary forces" of "privilege and greed" with their philosophy of "Teapot Dome."

The President carried his day and night cross-country stumping tour into Wyoming after telling an agricultural crowd at Lincoln, Neb., enactment of the controversial Brannan farm plan would help assure "peace and prosperity for ourselves and the world."

In a speech prepared for an audience today at Casper, Wyo., the chief executive described the New Kortes dam, 50 miles away, as a source of "wealth and strength for the people of the world."

And he scoffed at those who cry "Socialism," "Regimentation" or "Boondoggle" at government water and land resource development.

As the day proceeded he continued to talk to large and apparently happy crowds who jammed the tracks around his private car in the chatty, neighborly fashion that was his "vote appeal" in 1948.

Like at Pacific Junction, Iowa, yesterday where he told them he wanted them to look at their "hired man" to see if he is the same fellow who came out "looking for votes two years ago." He added he was 66 even if they thought he didn't look it.

Mr. Truman revived the old "Teapot Dome" oil scandal at Casper, contrasting the philosophy of "Teapot Dome" with that behind the construction of the Kortes Dam.

The solemn note he sounded in speeches yesterday in Illinois and Iowa, where he warned the Midwest that a return to "isolationism" could bring on "a third world war," crept into his Casper talk.

"We are engaged in a world-wide struggle to bring lasting peace to the world," he said. "In that struggle we are being opposed by a cynical imperialism which asserts that freedom and democracy are soft and incapable of strong action."

By developing projects like the Kortes Dam, Mr. Truman continued, this country "can prove how false, how hollow are the claims of Communism."

Senate Group 9-0 Against Postal Cuts

WASHINGTON, May 9—(AP)—The Senate postoffice committee today approved a resolution urging Postmaster General Donnell to drop his economy cutbacks in the postal service. The vote was 9 to 0.

On April 18, Donaldson cut a number of services, explaining the department lacked money to continue them. One order cut residential mail deliveries to one a day and reduced deliveries in business areas.

Donaldson also shortened the hours of window service and dropped some night handling of mail.

Since his orders were issued, there has been a barrage of protests from organizations of postal employees.

Landscape Architect Talks At 'SPIC' Forum

Henry L. Pree, Cleveland landscape architect and garden columnist, entertained a small but attentive audience last night at the Memorial building in the first of three "Operation SPIC" forums.

A second forum, on painting and interior decorating, will be held at 8 p. m. Wednesday at the Memorial building, with Miss Esther Davidson, Cleveland decorating specialist, as the speaker. Residents are invited to attend. Admission is free.

Flying Saucer Seen Over East Palestine

A "flying saucer," described as a silvery-colored disk with a dark spot in the center, was reported seen in nearby East Palestine early Monday morning.

Five workmen at the Adamson Manufacturing Co. reported seeing the object in a cloudless sky about 9 a. m. First, the object appeared to be a white ball. It floated slowly over the area, then suddenly darted off to the northwest and was out of sight within a matter of seconds, the men reported.

There was speculation that the object could have been a weather balloon.

Let Contracts On School Items

Board Action Aids New Buildings

Contracts were awarded for grounds improvement, painting and school equipment when the Board of Education met Monday night at the high school.

Equipment for Reilly School addition topped the list with a total of $21,201.85 in contracts being awarded to various companies. A breakdown of the contracts follows:

Surfacing play area at Buckeye School—Moherman Inc., of Youngstown. $1582.28.

Ramp to existing coal room at McKinley School—Pompeii Construction Co. of Poland, $550.

Cement sidewalks at McKinley School—Pompeii Construction Co., $889.50.

Slag for school grounds—Mike Hutter of Salem, $2.80 a ton. Painting auditorium—Frazier-Leveck Inc., of Ashtabula, $4,357.90.

Lockers for girls locker room in the high school and Reilly School addition—Masters Inc. of Youngstown, $2058.40.

REILLY ADDITION
Pupils tables for Grades 1 and 2—American Seating Co. of Grand Rapids, Mich., $4200.

Pupils' desks for Grades 3, 4, 5 and 6—American Seating Co., $7351.50.

Pupils chairs—American Seating Co., $2094.50.

Bleacher chairs for the auditorium in Reilly School—American Seating Co., $956.

Teachers' posture chairs—James & Weaver Office Supply Co. of Youngstown, $690.

Davenport for teachers rest rooms—James & Weaver Co., $192.

Office chairs—James & Weaver Office Supply Co., $268.

Electric range—Grove Electric of Salem, $299.

Electric refrigerator—Arrow Hardware of Salem $239.95.

Stage curtains and cyclorama—Billhern Studios of North Canton, $1140.

The board voted to readvertise for bids on folding chairs, teachers' desks and side chairs for the Reilly School addition.

Approval also was given for the installation of a drinking fountain in the kindergarten of the annex.

May 29 was authorized by the board as a vacation day for all students of Salem public schools.

Field Denies Contempt, Wants To Reconsider

WASHINGTON, May 9—(AP)—Frederick Vanderbilt Field denied today he was in contempt of Congress in refusing to answer some of the questions put to him by Senators investigating Communists-in-government charges.

His attorney, Harold I. Cammer of New York, asked that Field be given a chance to reconsider the queries.

Field's denial was made through Cammer who said a contempt citation against the alleged Red millionaire for refusing to answer the lawmakers' questions "would be inconsistent with observance of the privilege against self-incrimination guaranteed by the Fifth amendment to the Constitution."

Smith Resigns Presidency Of Commissioners In Huff

Columbiana County Commissioner John E. Smith resigned his post as chairman of the commissioners during a heated meeting Monday, charging lack of cooperation by his colleagues in the purchase of highway equipment and in his efforts to carry out the proposed road program whereby several miles of township roads would be annexed to the county highway system.

Mr. Smith declared the board has been attempting to replace several trucks in the highway department since the first of the year, but that bids have been submitted and resubmitted and still no action taken. It is understood the other members of the board favor repairing the present equipment.

Mr. Smith's resignation as president of the board, effective immediately, was accepted on a motion by Clarence L. Robinson, seconded by Kim Crawford. Mr. Robinson was then elected president on a motion by Smith seconded by Crawford, who was then elected vice president of the board for the remainder of the year.

Smith was defeated for reelection last Tuesday by Galen Greenisen of Salem, who won the Republican nomination.

China Reds To Free U. S. Pilots

Radio Says Prisoners Have 'Confessed'

TOKYO, May 9—(AP)—The Chinese Communists broadcast today they are releasing two American airmen from whom they extorted "spy confessions" after 18 months in prison.

The official Peking radio said the two airmen, E. C. Bender and W. C. Smith, will be deported. It gave no details.

Marine Master Sgt. Elmer C. Bender, Cincinnati, and Navy Chief Electrician William S. Smith, Long Beach, Calif., were forced down Oct. 19, 1948, on a flight from Tsingtao, then a U. S. Naval base.

They have been held incommunicado. The Reds rejected all efforts to obtain their release.

The Communist radio broadcast this statement by Gen. Hsu Shih-Yuh, commander of the Shantung military district:

"It was not until lately that Bender and Smith, influenced by our magnanimous policy towards prisoners, began to confess."

The history of Communism is full of similar "confessions," obtained after long imprisonment.

Teachers In Lisbon Protest Salaries

LISBON, May 9—A delegation of Lisbon teachers met Monday night with the board of education, protesting the salary schedule for 1950-51. The group pointed out that Lisbon school salaries rank 51st in the state among exempted villages.

Among 29 other exempted villages, the top salaries paid are $3,093, while the top in Lisbon is only $2,565. The board agreed to meet with the group next Monday to revise the salary schedule.

At the same meeting, the board's architects submitted completed plans for the new McKinley grade school. The board voted to advertise for bids on construction of the eight-room school as soon as approval is received from the state. The plans were taken to Columbus today for approval.

K-F CUTS PRICES
DETROIT, May 9—(AP)—Kaiser-Frazer Corp. introduced an expedited 12-model line of 1951 cars today and announced "substantially lower prices." K-F said this was its "second major slash" since 1948 and represented reductions ranging up to $96 on some models.

Reds Propose 'Free' Election

West Cool To Plan For Berlin Voting

BERLIN, May 9—(AP)—Russia says she will agree to a city-wide election in Berlin if Allied troops moved more than 100 miles back to West Germany. There appears little chance the Soviet condition will be accepted.

Along with four other demands calculated to give East German Communists the upper hands in the elections, a Russian note last night proposed withdrawal of all occupation troops from the city. Russian troops would need to move only to Berlin's outskirts. American, British and French soldiers would have to go to the Soviet zone border on Elbe River, more than 100 miles to the west.

Guarded but cool reactions to the Russian response were registered by two of the three Western commanders who three weeks ago proposed the city-wide ballot.

Maj. Gen. Maxwell D. Taylor, the American occupation chief here, said he found "little encouragement" in the Russian note. The British commander, Maj. Gen. Geoffrey K. Bourne, termed the reply "a very round about way of saying 'no.'"

Taylor added he found "some consolation" that "even the Soviets cannot be silent before the deep desire of Berlin to be reunited."

The Soviets demanded, in addition to the troop withdrawal:

1. Scrapping of the occupation law now in force in West Berlin. Under it the Western Powers gave their occupation zones self-government except in foreign policy and security.

2. Permission for all Communist-inspired East Berlin organizations including the Red "National Front" to function freely in the Western sectors.

3. Abolition of sector boundaries.

4. Restoration by the Western Allies of voting privileges to all former Nazis except those who lost the franchise because of conviction as war criminals.

Salem Band Concert Program Announced

Director Howard Pardee today announced the program for the Salem High School Band's annual spring concert to be held at 8:15 p. m. Wednesday in the high school auditorium in recognition of the 27th National Music Week.

"A Santa Cecilia" march will be the first number on the program, followed by "Youth Triumphant" and "Vanguard" overtures.

Fred Theiss will present a trombone solo, "Harbor Lights," and Robert Tarzan will sing "Nina." Gerry VanHovel will accompany both soloists.

Edward Butcher will be heard in a French horn solo, "Allegro," from "E Flat Concerto," with Ben Bailey as the accompanist. Bailey will present a piano solo, "Concert in Jazz," with the band accompanying.

The band will conclude the concert with five numbers: "South Pacific" selections "Swing Low, Sweet Chariot," "Rubalew," "Dry Bones" and "The Conqueror."

Sante Fe, Pennsy, Southern Lines Begin Embargoes

Walkout Begins At 6 A. M., Tomorrow; Truce Unlikely

CHICAGO, May 9—(AP)—Railroads involved in a strike set for 6 a. m. tomorrow, today began placing embargoes on freight and passenger traffic.

Three of the four major railroads singled out for a walkout by the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and Enginemen announced plans for curtailing service.

The Pennsylvania Railroad announced that it has issued an embargo on freight and passenger traffic in view of the railroad firemen strike scheduled for 6 a. m. tomorrow.

The Sante Fe Railway System said it is curtailing passenger service starting today. Plans for a freight embargo remain to be completed, the road said.

In Washington, the Southern Railway System issued an embargo on movement of all freight and passenger traffic which cannot reach its destination or clear Southern System lines before the strike deadline.

In addition, the Southern said that if the strike materializes it will discontinue all passenger, mail, express and freight service. The action would affect some 33,000 workers employed through the Southern System.

At Indianapolis, a New York Central spokesman said passenger service will be discontinued in Indiana if the strike materializes. He said efforts will be made to operate one freight train daily between St. Louis and Cleveland.

Passenger trains which would be discontinued, the New York Central spokesman said, include nine each way between St. Louis and Cleveland, and five between Chicago and Cincinnati.

Meanwhile, federal mediators strove desperately to effect a peaceful settlement. Negotiations, however, appeared to be hopelessly deadlocked.

The walkout against the Santa Fe, the Southern System, and Western divisions of the New York Central and the Pennsylvania, originally was to have started April 26. It was postponed two weeks at the request of the National (Railway) Mediation Board.

The firemen's principal demand is for a second fireman on multiple unit Diesel locomotives. The demand has been rejected by the carriers. Two presidential emergency fact-finding boards also held that there is no necessity for an extra fireman.

County Democrats Pick Clendenning

M. L. Clendenning of Wells-ville received his fourth consecutive term as Columbiana county Democratic chairman when the executive committee reorganized at a meeting in Lisbon Monday night.

Associated in the Julius Goetz & Co. clothing store, Mr. Clendenning also is chairman of the Columbiana county election board.

Att. Louis Tobin of East Liverpool was named vice-chairman, succeeding Fred Koenreich of Salem, and Jess Wilson of Lisbon received his fourth term as secretary-treasurer.

Mr. Clendenning completed the appointment of a 40-man executive committee to serve with him for the next two years and said he will appoint precinct committeemen within the week in vacancies that were not filled in Tuesday's primary. Committeemen are elected at the primary.

He told the committeemen in the courthouse session "chances are good" for the appearance of President Truman or Sen. Alben Barkley and his recent bride in an East Liverpool rally.

The rally, probably a windup for the November campaign, will be held in October, Mr. Clendenning said.

'Assignment: America'

By INEZ ROBB

THESE ARE PARLOUS days, as no one will deny. Any candidate who draws a bead on the White House must expect to stand up and be counted—out, in most cases!

But I am nonetheless surprised no end at the fine distinctions being drawn these days on the literary tastes supposedly qualifying a man for the presidency.

If I can still piece the English language together, Gen. Eisenhower is being definitely counted out of the White House because during the war years, he showed a fatal weakness for western and cowboy magazines.

The general is sent to the political showers in the current (May) issue of Harper's magazine by writer Richard H. Rovere in an article titled "The Second Eisenhower Boom."

Mr. Rovere's distaste for the general is wide. But he is concrete in his indictment of Mr. Eisenhower for his preference for rootin', tootin', shootin' cowboy Joe in fiction form.

AT THIS POINT I wish to make it clear that I am taking up the cudgels for Cowboy Joe, pride of the prairie, and not for Gen. Eisenhower, the political rustler.

What, I ask, disqualifies Joe as a literary companion for Presidents or would-be Presidents? Why is Joe unfit for the White House when every flat-foot and private eye in detective fiction dwell in the mansion during the occupancy of Presidents Woodrow Wilson, Herbert Hoover and Franklin D. Roosevelt?

These executives found relaxation with whodunits from a hard day in the executive office, and no one ever thought worse of them for it. Political opponents of this trio threw everything including the kitchen sink at them, but no one ever tried to disqualify 'em for office on the Nick Carter issue.

What if anything, gives Nick Carter, Nero Wolfe and Sherlock Holmes the social, literary and political edge over Cowboy Joe, Hi Ho Silver and Dead-Eye Dick, the rough-riding of Deadwood Gulch? Since when has Joe suffered from literary B. O. in comparison with Boston Blackie?

Two KILLED IN CRASH—This huge double-trailer gasoline tanker, driven by Paul Beamer, 35, of Canton, O., lies at the bottom of a 30-foot embankment near Martins Ferry, O., after colliding with the passenger car driven by Jack Hought, 27, of San Diego, Tex. Both drivers were killed. Blazing gasoline burned down utility poles and cut telephone connections.

parison with Boston Blackie? What makes the rider of the purple sage less acceptable politically than a house dick?

THERE ARE A lot of voters like myself who hail from the rodeo regions, and we don't intend to take these slurs on Joe without fighting back. Out on the range we don't take kindly to varmints who say Joe ain't fitten to hang his chaps in the executive mansion.

Mr. Rovere writes of the general: "He may have spent his peacetime leisure with Clausewitz, but it is known that in the war years—he spent what little leisure he had reading cowboy magazines. His wife sends over regular shipments of western pulps which he consumes with astonishing speed and interpenetration" it was reported back in 1943.

Obviously, this weakness for two-gun guys ought to stop the Eisenhower boom instantly and flag the general out of the presidential race. If Mr. Eisenhower wasn't man and general enough during—say—the Kasserine pass debacle to spend his leisure in reading Homer, Goethe and Proust in the original, he obviously isn't fit to run for the presidency even on the Republican ticket.

If President Eisenhower of Columbia University has his eye on the White House, he'd better work his way up the literary ladder to whodunits and quick! It is later than he thinks.

AS A CORRESPONDENT at Allied Force headquarters in Algiers in the winter of '43 and as a reporter who has had subsequent reportorial contacts with the general, I have never learned to like him personally. And I can not imagine ever voting for him for the presidency under any circumstances.

But I certainly respect the general for his genuine talents and accomplishments, and I am amazed that Harper's magazine has launched such a snide attack on him.

After all, Gen. Eisenhower can take care of himself, I presume. It's Cowboy Joe to whose defense I rise. And it is at this point that I, as a true daughter of the west, snarl: "Put 'em up, Rovere!" Or, better still: Shut up! (International News Service)

Donors Put House In Readiness For Painting Blitz

A preliminary step in preparation for the "blitz" painting of Mrs. Mildred Vaughan's home at 325 W. Ninth st. was completed Saturday as the Hickey Furnace shop workmen repaired, replaced and painted all spouting at the Vaughan home. The work was done free of charge.

The blitz painting will be held Sunday afternoon as Salem's union painters swarm over the house en masse to give the house a one coat face-lifting in the shortest time possible to do a good job. Both the union labor and the Dutch Boy paint are being donated to help Mrs. Vaughan continue to maintain ideal home conditions for her four children, an elderly mother and herself.

Wilms Nursery has volunteered to place greens and shrubbery around the house upon completion.

Toledo Woman Refuses To Pay Union Assessment

TOLEDO, May 9—(AP)—Because she refuses to pay union strike assessments totaling $12, Miss Gertrude Mason hasn't worked for a week—but she's still on the Toledo Stamping and Manufacturing Co. payroll.

The union, Local 12 of the United Auto Workers, won't suspend Miss Mason. The company won't fire her unless it does.

And everyone is pretty much worried about the situation, which could lead to a strike for 350 to 400 employees.

Miss Mason, who works in the grinding department of the plant, has maintained she's opposed to assessments such as the one the UAW International executive board levied last January for the Chrysler Corp. Strike.

"It puts too much power in the hands of the union. They can assess you for things you don't believe in," she explained.

The union notified Miss Mason in February that she would be suspended if she didn't pay. She didn't, and asked: "Why doesn't the union suspend me, then?"

But Harold Dean, International representative of the UAW, says he doesn't want Miss Mason to lose her $50-a-week job and blame the union.

"We are being patient with Miss Mason until we find out what the difficulty is. We hope the wiser council of her friends will prevail," Dean said.

Congress Hears Claim That Seaway Could Save $896,530

WASHINGTON, May 9—(AP)—Congress was told today that farmer-owned electric cooperatives in six northeast states would have saved $896,530 in 1949 if energy from the St. Lawrence seaway and power project had been available.

Clyde T. Ellis, executive manager of the National Rural Electric Cooperative Association, gave that estimate in testimony for the House public works committee.

The committee is considering legislation to authorize the dual-purpose project despite the fact it has announced it will not act on the bill this year. Its hearing is scheduled to end tomorrow.

Ellis' estimate of the savings was based on the actual amounts the 28 cooperatives in the St. Lawrence area paid compared to what they would have been billed had rates applicable to the Tennessee Valley Authority been in effect.

He said it was fair to use the TVA rate as a comparison because "we understand that St. Lawrence power can be produced at a cost much less than that of TVA."

Engineers estimate that the harnessing of the big river's international rapids section would result in an annual yield of more than 13,000,000 kilowatt hours of energy. The output would be divided equally between this country and Canada.

Ellis said it is his Association's belief private power companies would not be harmed and might be helped by the St. Lawrence development.

Reception Cool To Plug For Farm Plan

WASHINGTON, May 9—(AP)—President Truman's Lincoln, Neb., speech last night apparently stirred no new congressional enthusiasm for the Brannan farm plan—described by Democrats and Republicans generally as "a dead duck" in the present Congress.

In the first major speech of his Western swing, Mr. Truman threw his Administration solidly behind the plan.

In Washington, the reaction among farm leaders, even in his own party, was not encouraging.

The plan, presented by Secretary of Agriculture Brannan, proposes low cost foods for consumers and guaranteed income for farmers.

It would permit perishable foods such as fruits and vegetables to sell at what the market would pay. The government would pay each grower of a particular crop a sum to make up the difference between the market price and what the government considered a fair return.

Under the present program, the government supports the prices of many crops in the market places, by loans or purchases that remove surpluses from the markets.

Broken Window Sets Man Berserk, Kills!

A 31-year-old foundry worker was held in jail today for killing an expectant mother when he fired wildly at a group of ball-playing youngsters.

Patrolman Frank A. Harris said the man, Otis Abner, fired from a second-story window of his house yesterday after the boys broke a window in his home.

Mrs. Wilma Goodson, 17, dropped to the sidewalk with a bullet through her eye.

The patrolman quoted Abner's wife as saying he visited a hospital last summer and doctors informed her that "something affected his brain and he was likely to lose his mind when excited."

Abner was not charged immediately.

Mrs. Leslie Dunn, who lives in the neighborhood where the shooting occurred, told police that Abner chased the boy with a bat.

Then, she said, he struck her across the back, ran back into the house. A moment later, she added, he appeared at an upstairs window and shouted:

"I'm going to begin shooting."

Marital Woes Hit Bing Crosby Family

HOLLYWOOD, May 8—(AP)—The Bing Crosby household is suffering from "strained relations," the crooner's attorney disclosed today.

Rumors and gossipers have the Crosbys separated maritally as well as geographically (Bing is in Europe) but Attorney John O'Melveny declared:

"There has been no property settlement of any kind. There are some strained relations. The whole matter is in abeyance until Mr. Crosby returns from Europe late in June. We hope then to effect a reconciliation."

Mrs. Crosby, the former Dixie Lee of the films, was unavailable for comment.

Condemned Slayer's Hopes Are Slim

COLUMBUS, May 9—(AP)—Gov. Frank J. Lausche will get a Pardon and Parole Commission report on Theodore Roosevelt McClure today—but it isn't expected to do the condemned slayer any good.

Even the Cleveland Negro's attorney has given up hope. Only a miracle can save McClure from the electric chair tomorrow night.

After a lie detector test Saturday, McClure confessed he fatally shot Nicola Salupo, Cleveland grocer.

The statement came after members of the unofficial "Court of Last Resort" confronted the 24-year-old man with result of the test.

Leetonia To Hold School Assembly

LEETONIA, May 9—The annual Leetonia High Recognition Assembly will be held Friday when students who have excelled in nine activities will receive awards and certificates.

The program is sponsored by the Student Council.

Honor roll and perfect attendance awards will be presented by Leroy Hoskins, Mrs. Mary Biehler will distribute the library awards and Acting Principal Woodrow Bailey will identify Student Council members for their outstanding work.

The eighth grade scholarship awards will be handed out by Charles Wiedman, and Les Morris, past commander of the Joe Williams American Legion post, will present the American Legion honors.

Recognition of seniors who have excelled in scholarship will be given by Acting Superintendent C. H. Allison. School Music Supervisor Gwynn Jenkins will issue the music certificates. To the outstanding graduating student will go the Senior Cup, given annually by Ed Greenamyer.

Six Weeks That Changed History

IT HAS been 10 years since Hitler's Germany pushed over the tottering structure of Europe's security. The Nazi armies invaded Belgium and Holland on May 10. Six weeks later, they were in command of Europe.

France, which had possessed a numerically superior army, was licked and ruined. Britain, caught with its defenses at low ebb, had sacrificed all the equipment of the token land force which fled from the continent via Dunkirk.

The United States had only begun to suspect that its destiny would not be that of a neutral playing both ends against the middle. In the 1940 Presidential campaign both parties would be playing for votes on the theme of peace, but public opinion was bracing itself for the ultimate shock of participation in World War II.

Military authorities were revealing the bad news about the inferiority of U.S. arms and military manpower. But it was not to be until later that preparedness would develop the initial momentum that later would carry the United States forward into the military leadership of the world.

Meanwhile, momentum was being developed in the Soviet Union behind what later was to be called an "Iron Curtain." No one dreamed that Russian military power would explode out of generations of degeneracy into a commanding position in both Europe and Asia. That was a major consequence of the overthrow of the traditional balance of power in Europe—that and the emergence of the United States as a first-rate military power.

Five years later, when the war in Europe was over and the war in Asia was ending, a new world had come into existence. Only a few persons had been keen enough to see it coming. Most people still don't realize what happened. An old order passed and a new one came into existence in those six momentous weeks between the beginning of Europe's conquest and its completion. Russia took advantage of its change to make a bid for world power. The United States was forced against its will to become a military power. In 1950 they are locked in a struggle for power. Germany is shattered. France is impotent. Britain is moribund. Italy is dependent. Japan is defeated. China has been dismembered.

Color TV's Here—In the Red

TELEVISION is still a good business to lose money at, according to figures which Federal Communications Chairman Wayne Coy has given the broadcasting industry. Though total television revenues were up from $9,000,000 in 1948 to $34,000,000 in 1949, and the number of stations increased from 50 to 97, the record was written in red ink. The networks and their 13 TV stations lost $12,000,000. Another 78 stations lost $12,500,000. Only six TV stations made any money. TV losses were met almost entirely by profits from operation of standard band AM stations owned by affiliated companies.

It's Not The Money

THE FACT is that the expenses of the Presidential tour of the Pacific coast and return will be paid out of public funds. The further fact is that a great deal is going to be made of this by the political opposition.

The relationship between these two facts needs to be understood. The political opposition is not primarily concerned with the cost of the trip. It has no desire to make it appear that the Chief Executive of the United States is restricted in his right to travel by the high cost of special trains.

There is a desire, however (not limited to partisan politics) to resist a kind of carelessness with truth which has been demonstrated in this particular case. In order to use the White House travel allowance for the tour to the Pacific coast, Mr.

Truman has stated flatly that it is a non-political trip. He has tried to make it appear that the purpose of the trip is public business. That does not jibe with the facts as they appear.

The primary purpose of the trip is politics. Mr. Truman is on the stump for this year's Congressional elections. He is making the trip as the No. 1 leader of the Democratic party. Yet he is using the travel allowance of his office to defray what otherwise would be a substantial party cost. It's not the money but the principle that is important. Americans do not relish the idea of their Chief Executive being careless with truth.

The Catch In Unity

WHEN the executive council of the American Federation of Labor frames its reply this week to Philip Murray's proposal for unity with the C.I.O. and independent organizations of miners, machinists and railroad workers, it will be making a major decision in politics.

Two kinds of politics are involved—the politics of labor unionism as well as the political system of the United States. There would be definite advantages for union leaders in labor unification insofar as the political system of the United States is concerned. But no one knows better than the union leaders that there would be grave disadvantages insofar as the politics of their organizations would be concerned. They would want to guard even more jealously than the Soviet Union the power of veto in whatever plan of cooperative security they might develop. They would fall heir to the same kind of problems that have baffled the United Nations.

They would have to know in advance how to take care of John L. Lewis. Mr. Lewis would want to know in advance what was going to be done about union leaders who resent the independence of the United Mine Workers. Independent unions would want positive guarantees against the eventuality of eclipse and absorption. There would be knotty problems of finance and authority. And there would be the question of enforcement of decisions. When the A.F.L. council goes into deliberation it would do well to read the minutes of the United Nations first.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Pollard of Damascus left Salem Saturday for Cleveland where they will visit their daughter, Alice.

Members of the Friendly Neighbors Club played "500" when they met yesterday at the home of Mrs. James Pasco, Sr., on the Beechwood rd.

Preliminary figures indicate that New York City's 1950 population is going to total around 7,750,000. That's about 250,000 below estimates made by various agencies in the last year or two.

So, it isn't 8,000,000 after all. It only seems like 8,000,000 to the people who live there.

Still A Man's Time

By Hal Boyle

BUTTE, MONT. ONCE A BARTENDER in this copper mining capital of America got into an argument with an unfriendly customer.

Before the bartender could end the discussion he found it necessary to bite off the fellow's ear. He rose and flipped the ear on the bar and announced:

"The next round is on the house. Drink up, everybody."

This tale is typical of the old Butte. But it is also typical, in a way, of the new Butte.

For Butte is still one of a half dozen men's towns left in the United States. It is a free-and-easy town, where they give you change in clinking silver dollars instead of paper bills.

It is a man's town where they take a stranger at his word until his acts prove him a liar. This might be because this is a Far West melting pot of 50 nationalities. And in a town like that the only way you can judge anybody is by the simple standard: "Is he a good guy?"

IT MIGHT ALSO be because miners, coming up from daylong work under temperatures ranging up to 110 degrees, don't want to hear any guff as they drink their "boilermakers"—a whiskey shot chased by beer.

The basic fact remains that the atmosphere of this wide-open town is friendly—they like you until you start trouble. But if it's trouble you want, you can get it here from every direction of the compass.

Copper comes from sweat, and sweat comes from muscle, and there is a lot of muscle in a miner. And when a miner uses his muscle against flesh instead of hard rock he can raise a mighty bruise, and quickly change the silhouette of a man with buck teeth.

But there isn't so much ear-chawing and face-stomping hereabouts as there was in the old days. There is a sign outside Butte now that advises tourists: "She was a bold, unashamed, rootin', tootin', hell-roarin' camp in days gone by and still drinks her liquor straight."

But civilization has come to the bad, mad, glad copper camp. A half century or more ago most of the miners were single men and lived in boarding houses. Now most are married and have their own homes.

There used to be 800 to 1,000 prostitutes who paid $5 a night to rent cribs in the red light district. Today there are probably less than 50 doing a subdued underground business.

MORE MINERS now would rather go square dancing or help their kids with their homework. Butte is a changing town. It still takes pride in its ribald past—and there's plenty of it left—but it also is proud of its growing civil responsibility. You don't hear anyone bragging anymore that it has more dead men in its cemeteries than live men listed in the town directory.

It's a great place yet for a fight or a frolic, but Butte is slowly taming down—or growing up. You know what the folks are proud about today?

"It's our high school band," several men told me. "It's the best damn band in the country—150 pieces. A lot of other cities ask to hear our kids play—Pasadena, Portland, Washington. All we have to do is pass the hat, and in no time at all we can raise $20,000 or more to send them. Everybody chips in."

Grubby men lined up at the bars fork over as quickly as the people at the Country Club. Butte's even talking of bringing Toscanini out here—so he can lead some kids who really know music.

Just in Case—

Fair Employment Practices Bill

By JAMES MARLOW

WASHINGTON The senate is getting set to tackle a bill to set up an FEPC—Fair Employment Practices Commission.

The purpose: To make it unlawful for an employer to refuse to hire a worker because of his color, religion, or national ancestry.

For example: A Negro, a Jew, or a person of Japanese ancestry.

If the bill became law, it would be the job of the FEPC, a five-man board, to see the law was not violated by employers in the ways described above.

Democratic senators from the South, where there is sharp segregation between the white and Negro races, are prepared to talk the bill to death.

THIS technique, the filibuster, as worked before, may work again. It works this way:

The southerners talk in relays for hours, preventing the senate from acting on the bill. This stops the whole work of the senate.

The idea behind it: That in the end the rest of the senators will give up, drop FEPC, and go on to something else. The filibuster could take weeks.

In their 1948 campaign platforms the Democrats and Republicans came out against discrimination toward job-seekers because of race, color, or religion. But neither party platform specifically mentioned FEPC.

President Truman, though, has made FEPC part of his civil rights program. He's asked Congress, controlled by Democrats, to pass an FEPC law, an anti-lynching law, and a law abolishing the poll tax in the south. Congress so far has done none of those things.

Last year the Truman Democrats maneuvered to bring up an FEPC bill but the southern Democrats began a filibuster before the bill itself could be considered. They won their point and the bill never came up.

This year the Truman administration introduced in the house an FEPC bill which would have done this:

If a worker felt he had been denied a job because of his color, race or religious belief, he could complain to the FEPC board. The board would look into his case.

THEN, if the FEPC decided the employer had violated the law, it could order him to stop. If he didn't, the FEPC could ask a federal court judge to compel the employer to stop discriminating in his hiring. But—

Once this bill got out on the house floor it was amended so that if the amended bill became law, this is what would happen:

The FEPC could look into a complaint of discrimination but even if it found out there had been discrimination, it couldn't do anything but ask for voluntary compliance with its orders. It could not compel the employer to obey it. The house passed this bill.

Rep. Joseph Martin, Republican leader in the house, said this substitute bill met the requirements of the Republicans' 1948 campaign promises. He said: "This is an FEPC bill."

But Mr. Truman's Democratic leader in the house, Rep. McCormack of Massachusetts, didn't like this substitute bill passed by the house. He said it didn't comply with his party's 1948 campaign promises.

Now awaiting senate action is just about the same bill as that first offered in the house this year—giving the FEPC power to make an employer obey orders to stop discriminating.

So there is a difference between the house-passed bill and the one in the senate. The senate bill, its friends say, has teeth. They complain that the one the house passed had its teeth pulled out.

So even if somehow a southern filibuster failed and the senate passed the kind of bill just mentioned, it couldn't become law unless the house agreed to scrap the bill it passed and accepted the senate bill. There's no certainty it would.

SIDE GLANCES

By Galbraith

One Man's Opinion

By WALTER KIERNAN

WE ARE happy to welcome Prime Minister Ali Khan of Pakistan.

But this is the second important visitor recently to claim he doesn't want anything except to have a good time. . . . Someone is obviously sabotaging our foreign gift and loan department.

If we get any more of these people walking in here and saying they don't want anything, it may become necessary to give the taxpayers their money back and so disrupt our whole artificial economy.

We even sent a plane to London for this fellow, thinking that a touch of our plain democratic official swank would show him that we got the stuff to spend but he keeps saying, "I just want to see Times Square at night."

This is discouraging to a people who have grown accustomed to seeing visitors leave with their pockets scraping on the ground.

'Silent Service'

By PETER EDSON

Subs Take Spotlight In Defense Plans

WASHINGTON THEY called submarines "the silent service" during World War II, because they couldn't report where they were till they got back in port. It wasn't silent because it didn't have anything to brag about. The record of the Pacific war shows one-third of the Jap Navy and two-thirds of the Jap merchant marine sunk by U. S. submarines. And this was done by less than 2 per cent of the entire Navy force.

There is nothing silent about this service now. There is as much interest today in submarine and anti-submarine warfare as in any branch of the national defense effort.

Main function of the U. S. Navy's submarine fleet today is to serve as "enemy targets" for anti-submarine war games. The subs go out and hide, then the aircraft carrier task forces try to find them and simulate sinking them. Or vice versa—the task forces come out and the submarines try to penetrate their radar and defense screens.

One reason the Japs were defeated in the last war is that they were negligent on their anti-submarine work, says Rear Admiral James E. Fife, Jr., now commander of the U. S. Atlantic Force Submarine Fleet. The United States has also been negligent in this respect, but something is being done about it now.

Of the 116 "S" or fleet-type U. S. submarines in service in World War II, 90 are now in mothballs. They can be preserved that way for five or six years. But what the Navy is angling for is to have the mothball fleet modernized, a few at a time, so as to prepare the entire reserve for any emergency.

YET there is a keen realization of submarine limitations. As Capt. Roy S. Benson, in charge of submarine experimental work for the Atlantic fleet puts it, "Most of the things done by submarines can be done better by other ships or aircraft, provided they can get there, do the job, and get home. Conversely, most or many of the things done by surface ships and aircraft can also be done by submarines."

The submarine service is now trying to find out how to do better some of the things it may be called upon to do. Prototypes of a new hunter-killed submarine are now under construction at New London and Portsmouth. But they would not be available in sufficient numbers if there were an emergency.

Main reliance is therefore placed on modernizing and streamlining some of the old fleet-type subs to give them more speed, show.

greater range, and more anti-submarine detection gear. These are the "guppy" subs, which take their name from the high-sounding "Greater Underwater Propulsion Project."

In this streamlining, the deck gun and many of the devices that slowed up the sub have been knocked off. But experiments are being made in firing V-1 rockets from subs. These rockets have a range of 150 miles at a speed of 350 miles an hour. So the firepower of the sub may be greatly increased.

Other hulls are being converted into radar picket submarines, for early warning against enemy modernized subs are, of course, being equipped with the "smoke" breathing tube, which permits cruising submerged on Diesel engine power, instead of on slower batteries. But even the electric power has been speeded up.

TWO of the old fleet-type subs have been converted into transports. Each will carry 100 Marines and full equipment. Still another of the old hulls has been converted into an "oiler"—a submarine supply ship intended to refuel combat subs at sea.

New developments in underwater communications make the detection of enemy submarines much more accurate. While the Russians may have the advantage in numbers of submarines, the United States is now believed to have the advantage in anti-submarine warfare, due to the higher technical skill of this country. But the use of atomic-powered submarines and of torpedoes carrying atomic warheads is still too far in the future to be a factor.

Perhaps the greatest asset which the U. S. submarine service has, however, is in its manpower. It is strictly a volunteer service, and anyone in it who doesn't like it can get out by complaining. The reason is that the submarine service always has a waiting list, from recruits up through Annapolis graduates.

There is less of the old Navy stuffiness about the submarine service than any other branch. Submarines have their traditions, their tall tales and their pride, but they aren't rubbed in on outsiders.

Living in pretty close quarters, the officers, petty officers, ratings and enlisted men eat the same food out of the same galley. There is an easy familiarity without any apparent loss of discipline or close teamwork.

Practically every one of some 80 civilians attending a week-long orientation course at the Norfolk base came away more impressed by the submarines than by anything the Navy had to show.

Health To You

By EDWIN P. JORDAN, M. D.

Anemia Can Be Warning Signal

THE blood contains small round disks called red blood cells, or erythrocytes. Normally, there are about five million of these cells in each cubic millimeter of blood.

(There are more than 16,000 cubic millimeters in a cubic inch.) These cells contain oxygen and a red coloring matter—hemoglobin—which are indispensable to life.

When there are too few red blood cells or not enough hemoglobin the condition is called "anemia."

Anemia is not a single disease. Many different things can cause a lack of red blood cells or hemoglobin. One form is called pernicious anemia, or primary anemia.

The cause of this condition is not known, though the discovery of the value of liver—and more recently Vitamin B12—has changed it from a disease which used to be fatal into one which can be successfully treated in almost all cases.

With the exception of pernicious anemia, the problem boils down to finding out what has caused the lack of red cells or hemoglobin, or both. One of the most simple and yet a very frequent cause is bleeding from somewhere in the body.

If a person loses more blood than the system can replace, anemia develops. If this is sudden, as from a wound; the difficulty can be remedied promptly by stopping the hemorrhage and giving a blood transfusion. If hemorrhage is slow, it is necessary to find where the bleeding comes from and to stop it if possible.

If this kind of anemia is severe, it may be necessary to give transfusions or take other measures, including the use of iron preparations, iron being an important part of hemoglobin.

One kind of anemia comes most commonly in women between 30 and 50 years of age. The cause of this anemia is a deficiency of iron due to several things, probably including defective diet and poor absorption due to disturbance of the stomach and intestines.

This causes a feeling of weakness, shortness of breath, nervous disturbances, dry hair, sore tongue and paleness. Fortunately once it has been identified it can be successfully treated by giving iron.

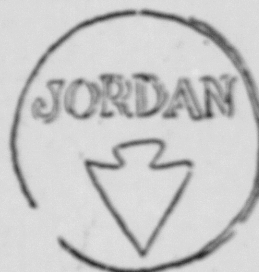

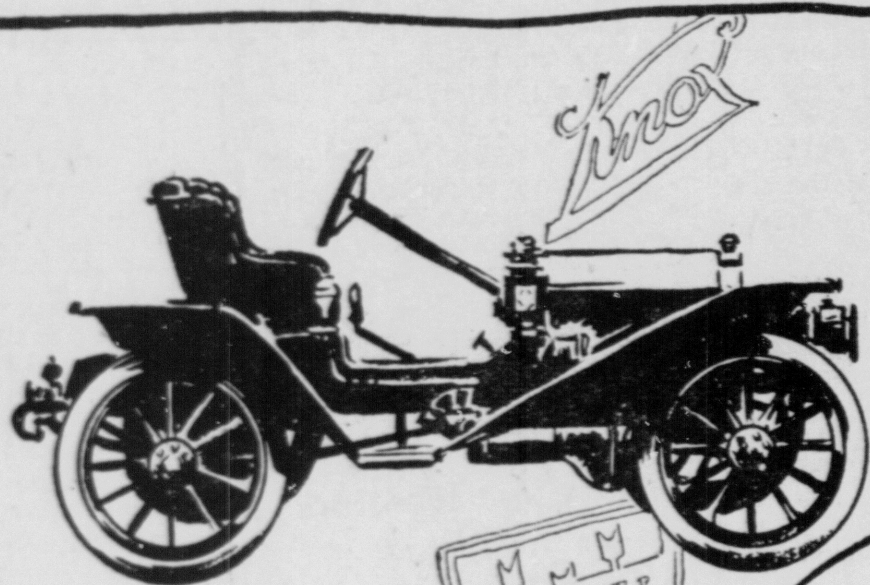

Anemia may result from the failure of the organs which make the blood to meet the needs of the body. This difficulty lies principally in the bone marrow and is much like anemia which comes from certain poisons.

Anemia is usually the reflection of something seriously wrong with the body. No one with severe anemia can feel well or can be normally energetic. The cause should be tracked down and proper treatment employed.

Troubles Exaggerated?

Taft Decries Lack Of T-H Oath Enforcement

WASHINGTON, May 9—(AP)—Senator Taft (R-Ohio) said today it is bunk for the Justice Department to claim it is having trouble prosecuting labor union leaders who may swear with fingers crossed they are not Communists.

The question of action against such officials takes on more importance now that the Supreme Court has ruled the non-Communist oath requirement of the Taft-Hartley labor law is legal. Taft told a reporter it is the fault of the Justice Department, not of the law of which he is co-author, that there have been no prosecutions for taking the oath falsely.

"They don't want to prosecute," he said. "They don't want to do anything against union leaders. The whole government has taken the same attitude. President Truman had that attitude toward John L. Lewis—he didn't want to do anything against Lewis."

Taft said he saw no need for revising the part of the law forbidding unions to use National Labor Relations Board machinery unless their officers swear they are not Reds.

But Senator McClellan (D-Ark) said in a separate interview it would be a good idea to tighten up the provision to make legal action easier.

"Perhaps," he suggested, "a union leader should be required to say he never has been a Communist, or that he hasn't been one for a certain number of years."

The Justice Department has taken the position that it is hampered in prosecutions because the non-Communist oath is in present tense.

Scrap Paper Drive Sunday Set Record

The "Operation SPIC" paper drive Sunday was the most successful in the history of the Junior Chamber of Commerce. More than 28 tons of newspapers and magazines were collected with approximately two-thirds being loaded into two giant semi-trailers and the rest going to the Deming Co. shipping department. The previous high in volume was 16 tons collected in 1946.

In charge of the collection were Lewis Briskin, Matt Melitschka, and Robert Baughman. Gail Herron donated the use of three large trucks for the day-long collection. The Bowman and Stratton companies also provided trucks for the drive.

The Ohio Valley covers some 200,000 square miles.

More Defense Funds Slated

House Plans Extra $350 Million For Arms

WASHINGTON, May 9—(AP)—The House was all set today to add an extra $350,000,000 for national defense spending, mostly on air power. The money would be put into a $29,000,000,000 omnibus appropriation bill now approaching a House vote.

A Congressman's suggestion that a United States warship may have recently sunk "a strange submarine" was not expected to hurt the cause of House members insisting that the cold war is too warm to permit economies at the expense of national defense.

Republicans whose policy committee meets today to figure out a plan to cut $1,000,000,000 or more from the pending one-package measure indicated that they will keep hands-off the $13,911,000,000 national defense budget already recommended by the appropriations committee.

They are expected to go along too with a later committee recommendation that an extra $350,000,000 be given to the Air Force and the Navy, most of it for airplanes.

The assertion of Rep. Young (D-Ohio) about the submarine sinking actually created little stir in the House. Young said in a statement that the U. S. warship may have "engaged a strange submarine and sunk it with depth bombs."

He said he didn't "dream this" and "I didn't get it out of my mind," but refused to elaborate further.

A Navy spokesman who was asked about it said the Navy has investigated all reports of foreign submarines in coastal waters and has yet to confirm there was any such sub in any case.

The Republican policy committee hoped to reach agreement on a plan to reduce the big appropriation measure without affecting funds for the Army, the Navy or the Air Force.

A big surprise was yesterday's action, cutting $1,800,000 from the $632,620,000 recommended by the appropriations committee for river, and harbors and flood control.

Just Imagine It's Yours!

You say you have never driven a Cadillac? Well, it's a lovely day—and there are beautiful roads to travel down and interesting places to visit—and a little dreaming never hurt a soul...

...so just slide over behind the wheel. It's yours!

First, you'll just want to sit for awhile—here where royalty has sat, and the great of industry and state, and of all the learned professions. Yes, the driver's seat in a Cadillac is meeting place for the world's distinguished people.

And sitting here—with your hand on the slender, obedient wheel—you get a close-up view of the ingrained goodness that makes this car so unmistakably... the Standard of the World.

The gorgeous upholstery fabrics are tailored in the richest fashion. The exquisite hardware is wrought with a jeweller's care. The lovely instrument panel is a feast for the eyes. All about you is proof of quality.

And then you turn the key, touch the soft-throated engine into action—and you're away, away, away!

The steering wheel all but reads your mind! The brakes are as soft as velvet, and immediate in their response! The road has become a boulevard—and the turns and lights seem so very close together!

And the soft, easy quietness of it all! You just sit and relax—in complete contentment—and the miles go by—and the miles go by...

... "Oh, how I wish this car were mine!"

Well, it's time, we think, to stop dreaming—and lend an ear to this...

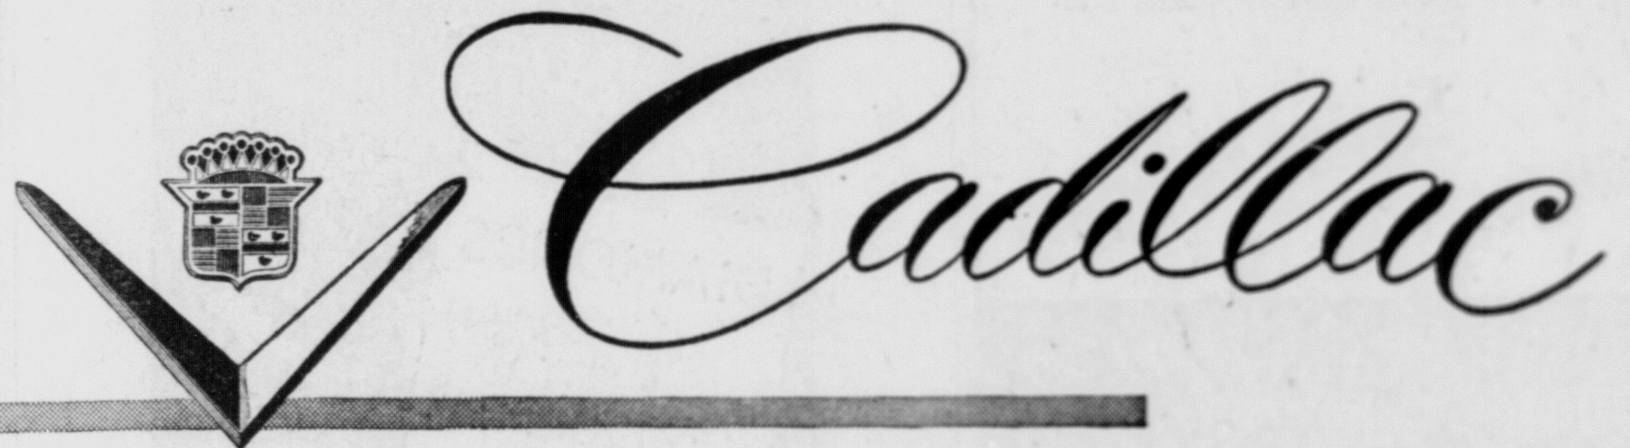

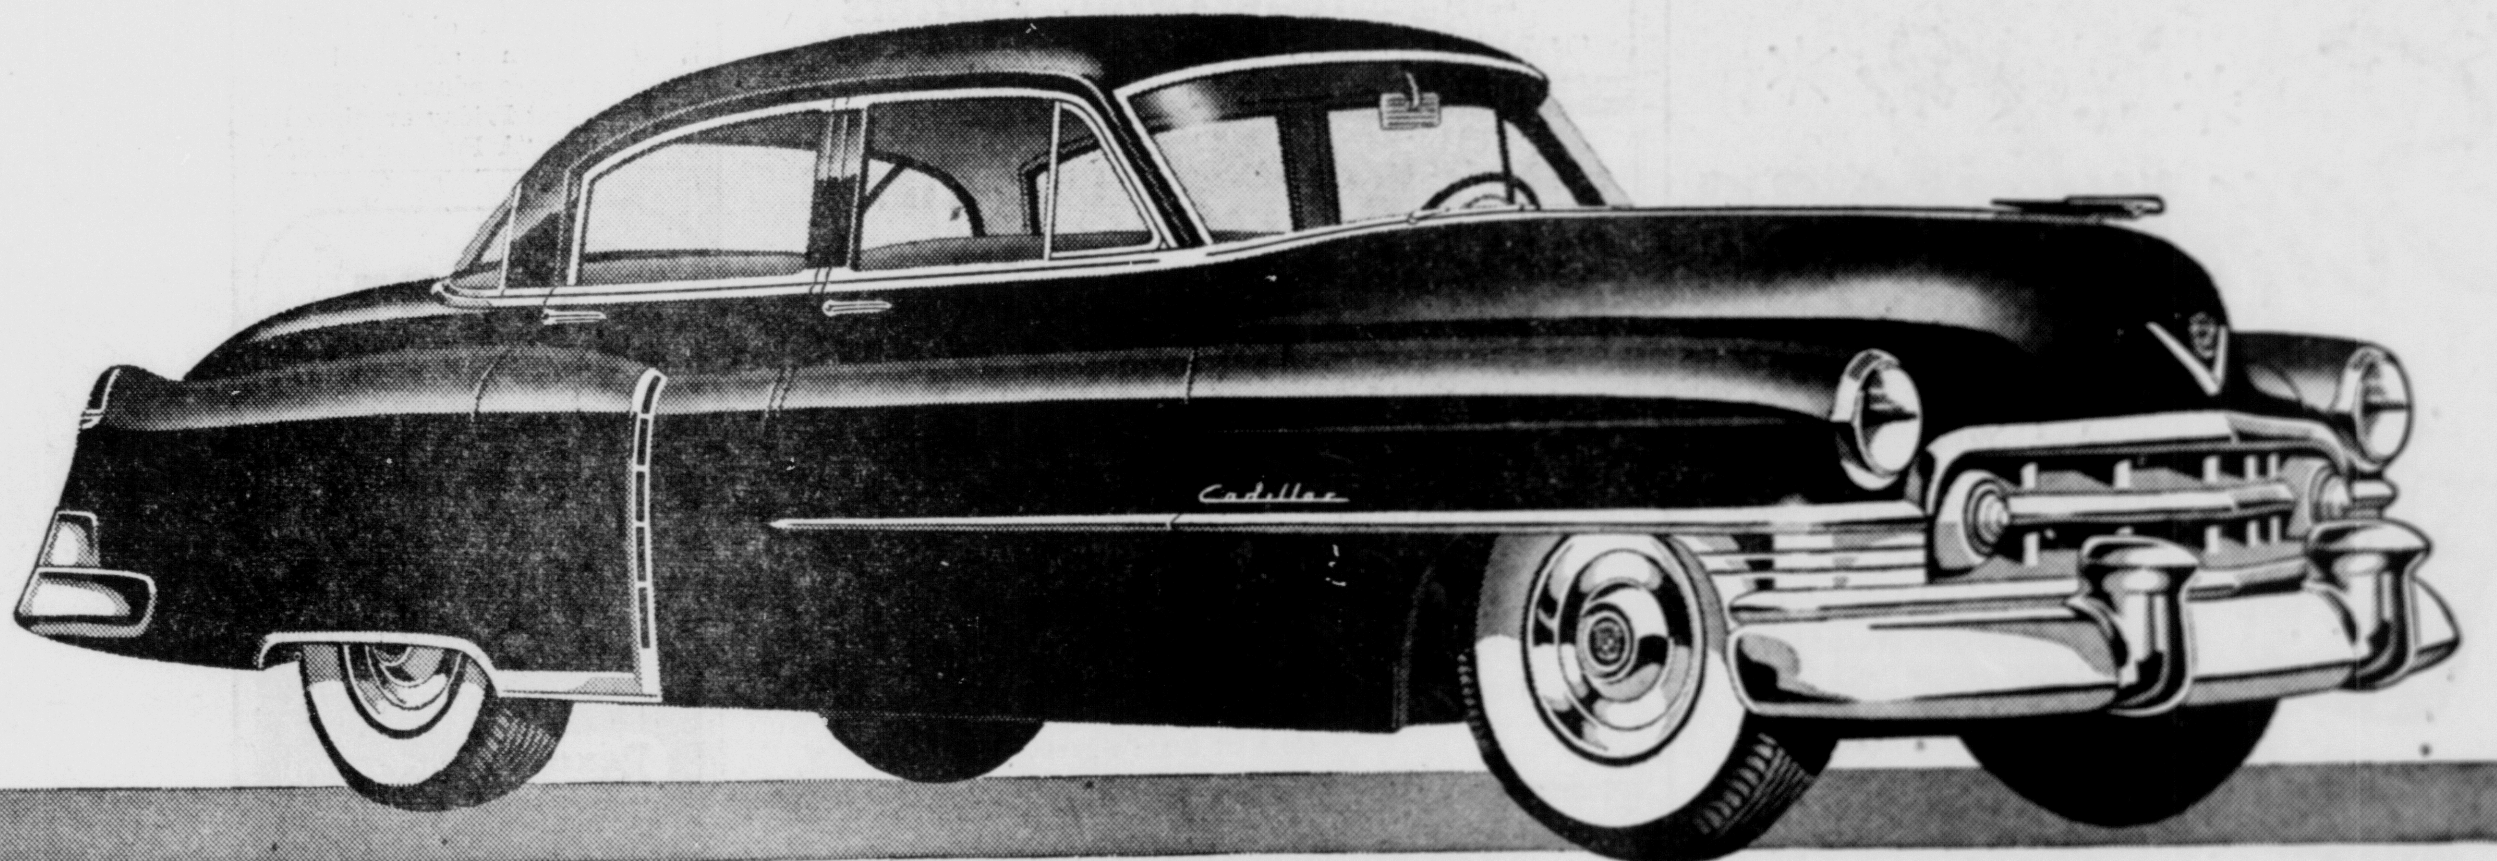

... the lower-priced cars in the Cadillac line cost less to buy than the highest-priced models of numerous other cars!

... Cadillac economy is so outstanding that a single filling of gasoline will usually suffice for a full day's drive!

... and a Cadillac car is built so well that its lifespan has never been fully measured!

We think you'll agree that, with facts like these, it's time to stop your dreaming.

It's time to go into action—and to make this car your own!

Collusion Hinted In Coal Tieup

Lewis To Testify
On Orders To UMW

WASHINGTON, May 9—(AP)—A House committee may air charges that John L. Lewis, by secret signals to his United Mine Workers, flouted a back-to-work court order in last winter's coal strike.

Rep. Jacobs (D-Ind.) said he was issuing a subpoena today for Lewis' appearance next Monday before a House labor subcommittee investigating "union democracy" and labor union practices.

Jacobs said Lewis will be questioned to "get the facts" in the case of a UMW member who lost his job and was fined $50,000 by the union in a dispute developing out of the work order.

The mine worker is Lloyd H. Sidener, deposed president of the UMW local at Canton, Ill. He has said that Lewis "gave one (back to work) signal for the court and public, and another for the men."

Jacobs also ordered subpoenas for the appearance of Sidener and Bernard J. Beasley, board member of UMW District 12 embracing Illinois.

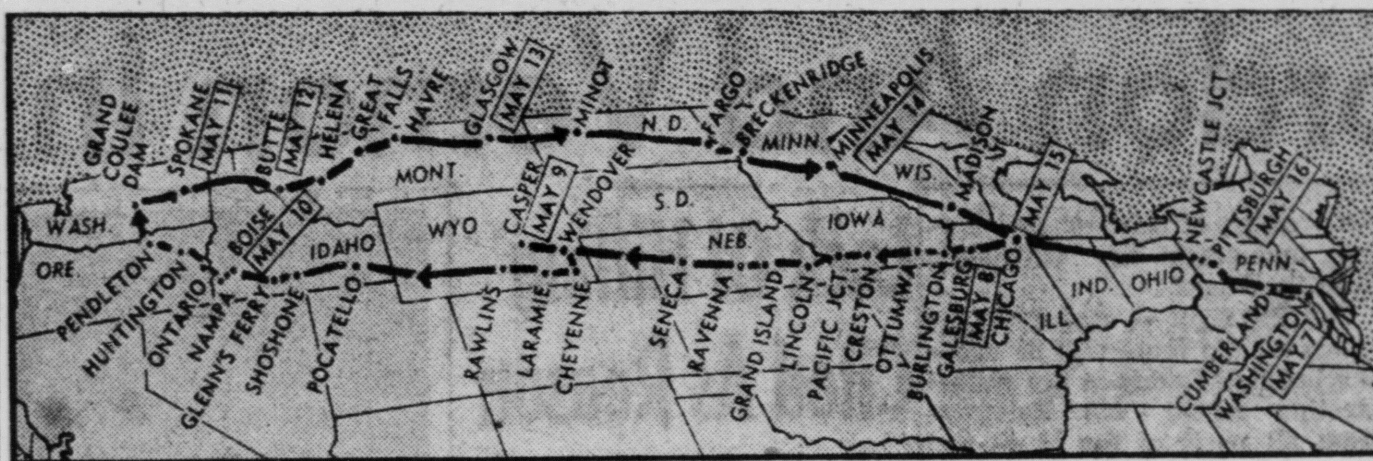

Sidener told newsmen Lewis secretly countermanded a public back-to-work order issued by the union after a federal court injunction was issued Feb. 11 against continuance of the stoppage.

And because he tried to return to work, Sidener said, he was fined $50,000 and deprived of the right to work. It would be impossible to pay such a fine he said.

Contempt of court charges against the union, based on the claim it did not try to get the miners back to work in response to the court order, were dismissed in district court. The government has appealed.

Sidener has filed unfair labor practice charges with the National Labor Relations Board at Chicago against the UMW, Lewis, the coal company, the Canton local, and Hugh White, District 12 president.

Early experiments in color photography were made in 1848 when Alexandre Becquerel reproduced the colors of the spectrum on a daguerrotype plate.

Close Defense On OSU Murder

Doctor To Testify
Heer Was Too Drunk

COLUMBUS, May 9—(AP)—Defense counsel said they expect to rest today in the fraternity murder trial of James D. Heer, former Ohio State University student from Euclid.

The 21-year-old former marine is charged with first degree murder in the shooting Nov. 12 of Jack T. McKeown, 21, of Norwood, O. McKeown was managing editor of the University's newspaper.

Heer was a pledge and McKeown a member of Delta Tau Delta.

Defense Attorney Matthew L. Bigger declined to reveal the name of a doctor he plans to put on the witness stand today in an attempt to show Heer was too drunk to form intent to kill.

Much of the trial's testimony has been about a party at the fraternity house and a dance at a club the evening McKeown was shot.

Witnesses have testified students drank liquor at both places. If the defense rests today, Heer's fate could be in the hands of the 10 women and two men by nightfall Wednesday.

Heer will not take the stand, Bigger said.

Yesterday a parade of character witnesses gave their opinions of Heer as a youth.

His mother, Mrs. Edith Heer, described him as a "model boy."

She said he was easy to get along with, quiet, and fun-loving.

Mrs. Heer admitted that early in 1946 her son had been arrested for discharging firearms.

Later that same year, Heer began a two-year hitch in the Marine Corps, she continued. Following his discharge, she said, he started drinking. But, she added, he drank "only a little beer" after his step-father, Samuel W. Heer, "talked and reasoned" with him.

freshman medical students to the College of Medicine next fall, an increase of 62.

A spokesman said the larger quota is possible because dental students will move to the new College of Dentistry building. The problem has been to find laboratory space and equipment for Freshman medical students.

National statistics show there are about 15 medical students for every available opening in universities.

CLEVELAND, May 9—(AP)—A 43-year-old man wanted in Yakima, Wash., for swindling Gold Star mothers by posing as a Naval officer has been arrested here, the FBI said today.

Ray J. Abbaticchio, Jr., in charge of the Cleveland FBI office, identified him as Harold S. Darling of Portland, Ore. He had been hunted since December.

The agent said Darling pretended to be a Naval officer assigned to get pictures of war heroes for a government publication. Mothers were asked to contribute $12 as their share of the publication's cost.

Ex-Mayor Canaday To Run For Governor

POMEROY, May 9—(AP)—Ohio's two governor candidates may have a running mate—former Mayor Delmar A. "Kid" Canaday.

Canaday said yesterday he will run as an independent next Nov. 7 against Democrat Gov. Frank J. Lausche and Republican Don H. Ebricht, state treasurer.

But, the Pomeroys man, ex-welterweight champion of West Virginia, has not filed petitions with the Secretary of State. He needs 31,285 valid signatures from at least 30 counties.

Observers predict Canaday, who now operates a wax company here, will have no trouble getting the signatures.

- ★ America's most glamorous car!
- ★ Triumph of Anatomic Design*

The 1951 Kaiser DeLuxe 4-door Sedan...one of 6 body styles and 12 models. Hydra-Matic Drive available in all models at extra cost.

★ *Anatomic Design... (Ana-TOM-ic)...is the newest, most advanced step in motor car making. It is the principle of engineering the anatomy of the car, every feature of the body and chassis, to suit the needs of human anatomy in a way never before achieved. It results in a car that is easier to control, more comfortable, safer for you and your family to ride in.

And here it is... the first car in America built from roadline to roofline on the principle of Anatomic Design!

Like riding "outdoors!" Largest windshield, slimmest corner posts in any car...no "blind spots"!

Most room ever! High-Bridge Doors offer new walk-in ease. Single-Roll Body provides extra wide, lounge-comfort seats, more headroom and leg room.

Easiest ride on the road! A Level-Flight Ride...because exclusive spring suspension takes up road shock!

Here's super-safety! Lower center of gravity and Truline Centerpoint Steering let the '51 Kaiser take curves faster, safer! Oversized jumbo brakes make stopping surer, swifter!

Value that holds up! Years-ahead newness and economy of operation save you money and assure lasting protection for your investment.

New 115 h.p. Kaiser Supersonic High-Torque Engine gives you faster acceleration; less vibration with higher compression, quieter, smoother performance; more driving power per horsepower, lower gas and oil consumption.

Pittsburgh Options Fitzgerald To Minors

PITTSBURGH, May 9—(UP)—Catcher Eddie Fitzgerald, one of the most promising rookies in the majors three years ago, was optioned to Indianapolis on 24-hour recall Monday by the Pittsburgh Pirates.

Fitzgerald, a good hitter who never has mastered the art of catching low pitches, was a pinch-hitter in yesterday's Pirates-Dodger game at Forbes Field. The announcement of his release came within five minutes after he was out attempting to steal second base.

The loss of Fitzgerald left the Pirates with only dependable receiver Clyde McCullough. The only other catcher on the roster is Rookie Earl Turner.

Merchants Play Third League Tilt Wednesday

Carrying a 1-1 record, the Salem Merchants will play their third Columbiana County League game Wednesday night at Centennial park. The opposition will be furnished by Lisbon.

Game time will be 6:30, Manager Walt Mellinger said today.

Yesterday's Stars

Batting—Tommy Glaviano, Cardinals—Had a perfect night at the plate with four for four, five runs batted in and three scored as the Cards whipped the Braves, 10-3.

Pitching—Art Houtteman, Tigers—Stopped the Yankees with eight hits, yielding lone run in the ninth as Detroit defeated the world champions, 7-1.

ABC May Erase 'White' Clause

Big Fight Scheduled For Friday Sessions

COLUMBUS, May 9—(AP)—An internal battle over its "white male" membership restriction is about to shake the 50-year-old American Bowling Congress to its foundations.

That was the consensus today as the grapevine whispered the results of last night's opening confab of the ABC "brass," the executive directors.

No one was talking for publication, but the best guess was the directors had decided to bow to the pressure of many-angled lawsuits and erase the restriction from the books.

The big fight—and everyone seems certain there will be one—is scheduled Friday at the annual meeting. About 400 delegates from all parts of the U. S. and Canada have the power to overrule or refuse to approve any actions of the directors.

Although several big city associations were reported in favor of lifting the membership ban, the directors were slated to run into opposition from many other associations, representatives of the bowling alley proprietors in some sectors, and the "solid south."

Elmer H. Baumgarten, militant executive secretary of the ABC since 1932, remained unconvinced the "white male" restriction should be removed. Southern directors and some other officials were reported to have backed his stand, but legal advisers thought the ban must be erased if the ABC were to salvage any of its present structure.

Earlier the "brass," harassed by numerous lawsuits and an Illinois court decision on an individual rather than a team basis, with the individuals being members of city associations. The city associations, in turn, would make up the ABC.

A constitutional amendment, readied for Friday's meeting, originally read:

"City associations shall be composed of individuals of the white male sex who are interested in the game of American tenpins."

It was that amendment which was changed last night, according to whispers which said the "white" had been deleted. The big question was whether the newly-phrased "open to all" membership regulation could muster a majority vote Friday.

One southern director was quoted as telling the others:

"We had to leave the north once before. Maybe we'll have to do it again."

Another director, who declined use of his name, said:

"If we eliminate the 'white male' restriction, membership on teams will still be on an 'acceptability' basis, just as it is now. Teams have a right to select their own members. The elimination, however, would clear the way for ABC teams made up of Negroes, Chinese, Japanese, Indians or any other races, or any combinations acceptable to the teams themselves."

Lack Of Hitting Cited As Reason

Easter Goes To First, Berardino On Second

WASHINGTON, May 9—(AP)—Manager Lou Boudreau yanked what was left today of the brilliant infield which took his Cleveland Indians to a world championship in 1948.

Following three straight losses—two of them humiliating lickings from the Washington Nats—the veteran pilot benched aging Joe Gordon and Mickey Vernon.

With his team in fifth place today, Boudreau said "I'm bringing Luke Easter from right field to first base, putting Johnny Berardino on second and installing Allie Clark in the right field."

The pronouncement wrote finish to the infield labeled "excellent" two short years ago. Eddie Robinson, the first baseman, was traded to Washington last year for Vernon; Ken Keltner, now with Boston, was given an outright release earlier this season; Boudreau has benched himself, and Gordon, the last of the top-notch combination, has now joined the splinter squad.

Boudreau's obvious disappointment in Gordon's showing this season came as no surprise. The 35-year-old second sacker's infield play has been shoddy, his hitting an anemic .146.

VERNON'S PLAYING has resembled Gordon's. His hitting has been the worst in his major league career, averaging only .145.

Easter, in taking over Vernon's job may oust the veteran permanently. The position is the same he played in the minors. He was sent to the regular right field spot this year only because Boudreau thought Vernon would be more valuable to the team at first than Allie Clark in right.

Easter has been slow in getting started, but in the last four games he looked good. He walked two homers against the Nats Sunday and another three-bagger last night. He is hitting only .250, but has been pulling the average up daily.

Neither Clark nor Berardino has played a game this season. Berardino was once a fairly good second baseman. He hasn't been used much in the past two years and is 32 years old, but Boudreau thinks he can do a better job than Gordon or rookie Bobby Avila.

Preakness Stakes To Have Eight Starters

LOUISVILLE, Ky., May 9—(UP)—A maximum field of only eight starters was indicated today for the Preakness stakes May 20.

Middleground came within a fifth of a second of tying the Kentucky Derby record in his triumph Saturday. He's the favorite for the Preakness, naturally.

Including Middleground, the first six finishers in the Derby plus the beaten favorite, Your Host, plus Newcomer Ferd, seem likely to start in the Preakness.

The first six in the Derby were Middleground, Hill Prince, Mr. Trouble, Sunglow, Oil Capitol and Hawley.

SELECT TRACKSTERS

NEW YORK, May 9—(AP)—Five top-flight American track stars have been selected by the AAU to compete in overseas meets in mid-June.

Heading the group which will compete in Glasgow June 10 and Belfast June 12-13 is Harrison Dillard of Cleveland, four-time winner of the AAU indoor high hurdles title.

This will be one of seven major tours that will take about 100 United States athletes abroad this year.

Cage Tourney Receipts Drop

51,917 Less Fans Attend Ohio Games

By FRITZ HOWELL
COLUMBUS, May 9—(AP)—Ohio's high school basketball tournaments, after showing a steady rise in attendance and receipts since the war, showed a drastic drop this year.

The big cage carnival—through the county, sectional-district, regional and state play—skidded 51,917 in attendance and $40,647.73 in receipts from the all-time high of 1949. The totals were 860,060 and $515,524.17.

Attendance was the lowest since 1946, and receipts the lowest since 1947. The State High School Athletic Association's take dropped off better than $12,000, but was still almost $1000 over the 1948 figure of $54,267 when 50,000 more fans saw the tournaments. Taxes ate up $94,357.43 of this year's receipts.

Five county tournaments drew more than 10,000 customers each. Wood county led the way with 14,475 fans, and Clark was second with 11,862. Other "big ones" were Preble (played at Richmond, Ind.) 10,774, Marion 10,647, and Miami 10,106.

The Class A sectional-district meet at Troy, through which Springfield battled to the state championship, was tops in attendance with 22,182 fans, many attracted by the new field house which was a tourney site for the first time. The southwestern area led the way with 87,146 customers, and it was the only one to show an increase over 1949.

Total attendance in the district—sectional meets was 331,503, a huge drop from the 353,261 of 1949. The southwestern area jumped almost about 12,000 under last year's figure.

Just about half the customers viewed the county eliminations, the Class B fixtures attracting 435,236 of the 860,060 total. The county meets were about 23,000 off last year's attendance, 458,885 witnessing the 1949 events.

Only one section of the big show set a record, 41,386 fans crowding the state fairground coliseum for the championship games to erase the 40,527 mark set a year ago.

In the last six years the statewide cage chase has attracted 4,906,212 fans, who paid a total of $2,832,250.58. Of the gross receipts the state association took $304,323.07, and taxes gobbled up $520,717.03.

This year the state association annexed $3,050 from the county meets, $24,989.44 from sectional-district play, $15,863.89 from the regionals, and $11,167.50 from the state meet.

T. W. Emswiler, state high school athletic commissioner, blamed poor weather for much of the drop in attendance, ice having covered the highways on a couple of tournament weekends.

"And money doesn't seem to be as loose as it was a year or two ago, either," Emswiler commented.

18 Motorists Draw Fines In Area Courts

Fines totaling $815 were meted out in district courts this week-end following 18 arrests by state patrolmen of the Salem barracks.

Overweight convictions brought the two largest fines as Frank J. Sigmund, 45, of Cleveland was fined $237 and costs by Justice of the Peace Clara Gardner of Edinburg, and Michael Uschak, 28, of Cleveland, was fined $253 and costs.

Five drivers were fined in Mayor Harry Vincent's court:

Frederick Raffath, 53, of Akron, $10 and costs for speeding; Russell Gotthardt, 29, of 951 Jones drive, $10 and costs, crossing over the yellow line; George Marchbanks, 32, of R. D. 1, Hanover, $20 and costs, failure to observe a stop sign, resulting in an accident; Wiubur Lehman, 18, of Orrville, $20 and costs, passing without the assured clear distance, and Robert Fisher, 26, of 523 Franklin st., $20 and costs, passing on a hill resulting in an accident.

Three men and a woman drew fines in Mayor Erwood Calvin's Columbiana court:

Annabelle Fisher, 49, of Columbiana, $25 and costs, reckless driving; Robert Beach, 19, of Youngstown, $25 and costs, reckless driving; Raymond Almasy, 22, of Steubenville, $15 and costs, speeding; Delphos Coffelt, 31, of Churubusco, Ind., $50 and costs, passing without the assured clear distance.

Convicted in Mayor Kenneth Hiscock's Lisbon court were:

Leroy Johnson, 25, of Lisbon, $15 and costs, reckless driving resulting in an accident; Willard Hays, 70, of R. D. 2, Kensington, $15 and costs, driving on the wrong side of the road, resulting in an accident; James Orr, 19, of Salineville, $25 and costs, reckless driving resulting in an accident.

SHE WAS LOST AND FOUND.—Two-year-old Anna Pearl Thorpe indicates by her dismayed expression that it's no fun being lost in snake infested woods overnight. Searchers found her, minus her clothes, wandering in a field three miles from home at Dunbar, Pa. Her mother Mrs. Bessie Thorpe, 31, holds her tight to be sure she doesn't get away again.

less driving resulting in an accident.

Patrolmen cited two men into Mayor T. Ritenour's court in Ravenna as John Wood, 36, of Crechester, N. Y., was fined $10 and costs for passing without the assured clear distance, and Walter Hood, 26, of Norwood, $15 and costs, speeding.

George Thompson, 34, of Chicago was fined $25 and costs at Edinburg on an overweight charge. Also fined was James Moore, 56, of Detroit, $15 and costs, passing at an intersection.

Two County Men Begin Serving Prison Terms

LISBON, May 9—(AP)—Two Colum-biana County men were taken to Ohio State Penitentiary today to begin serving terms. They were in the custody of Sheriff Howard Clark and Deputy Russell Van Fossan.

The men are Ray Sprouse of Empire, who will begin a one to 20-year term for auto theft, and Robert Allen of R. D., Wellsville, who will serve one to 20 years for forgery.

Court Delays Firing Order By School Board

YOUNGSTOWN, May 9—(AP)—The seventh appellate court issued a writ yesterday ordering the Mahoning county school board to set aside an order firing County Superintendent Edward A. Saltsman.

Saltsman, head of county schools since 1945, sued the board claiming it could not dis-charge him under the Ohio teacher tenure law.

Acheson, Bevin Discuss Cold War

LONDON, May 9—(AP)—U. S. Secretary of State Dean Acheson and British Foreign Secretary Ernest Bevin met today to discuss ways of winning the cold war.

Acheson came by plane from Paris, where he talked yesterday with French Foreign Minister Robert Schuman and agreed that the United States would give military and economic aid to keep warring Indo-China out of the Communist column.

Acheson and Schuman also were reported in agreement on giving more political and economic freedom to Western Germany by easing the occupation law.

One of the problems the U. S. and British ministers were to examine was similar to that of Indo-China—the Communist uprising against Britain in Malay.

National Grange Won't Act Against Fichter

WASHINGTON, May 9—(AP)—The executive committee of the National Grange took no action at week-end meetings on a plea for ouster of Joseph W. Fichter as master of the Ohio State Grange.

The ouster move is being pressed by some members of the Ohio Grange.

Officials of the National Grange said today the executive committee urged the Ohio members to settle the question themselves.

The move grew out of complaints over Fichter's administration policies.

ASHTABULA LADY LOST 30 LBS. IN 6 WEEKS

"I feel like a new woman since taking Rennel, and have lost 30 lbs. in about six weeks," writes Mrs. Frank Kleindienst, 741 W. 39th St., Ashtabula, Ohio. "I have lost this weight without dieting. I no longer feel clumsy and can now do my housework easily. Thank you very much for what Rennel has done for me."

Hundreds of others have obtained similar relief from the social and physical discomforts of being overweight. Why not try this effective yet inexpensive method of reducing and enjoy the pleasure of feeling younger and more alive. Try Rennel and notice the admiring looks you will receive from your friends as your figure becomes younger and your vitality increases. Just go to your druggist and ask for 4 ounces of liquid Rennel. Pour the contents into a pint bottle—add enough unsweetened grapefruit juice to fill the bottle and then take two tablespoonsful twice a day. That's all there is to it. If you aren't satisfied with the results, return the empty bottle to the manufacturer and your money will be refunded. You need never know a hungry moment while taking Rennel—no starvation diet—no printed diet list to buy—no vitamins to fortify you against weakness while going hungry, for you WON'T be hungry. Don't be switched to another product, insist on genuine Rennel.

France

bund, and the gravity of the situation is that this reflects perhaps what has happened to the vitality, energy and patriotism of France. A country has the army which it merits.

"The attitude of the nation itself is disconcerting. It seems based on the theory of abandonment."

"Only recently it was assumed that Soviet attack against Western Europe would take the Russian army direct to the Pyrenees. There was no question of French defense."

American diplomatic observers in Paris believe that some noted non-communist French intellectuals and authors have played a by no means inconsequential part in confusing the minds of the French people.

The well-known French novelist and academician, Francois Mauriac, recently gave the readers of Figaro, another leading conservative paper, the impression that there was little to choose between Russia and the United States.

Another highly significant article was written for Le Monde by Etienne Gilson, member of the French academy and writer on history and philosophy.

Discussing European defenses, Gilson took the stand that neutrality is not disgraceful, or cowardly and pointed to the histories of Switzerland and Sweden. Gilson added:

"The art of war is to fight it in such the way that it rids the victor of both his allies and his enemies. . . After World War I, in which France was bled white for the common victory, she was accused by her allies of having caused the war and sabotaged the peace."

French philosophical voices raised in criticism of the American way of life coincide with other non-Communist pamphleteers urging neutrality for Western Europe in the cold war.

These are the factors which lead western military strategists to conclude that the answer to the question "will France fight?" is "no," insofar as the immediate future is concerned.

Why Sohio gives you the best Spring Changeover in town!

1 Your car is serviced only by trained lubrication experts . . . men who have actually qualified as such in Sohio's carefully supervised training schools. And even after "graduation", they attend refresher training courses to keep abreast of the latest mechanical methods, and the latest mechanical developments in new cars.

2 Sohio technicians virtually live in Detroit to produce detailed "Lubri-Charts" . . . all manufacturer-approved. They are up-to-the-minute lubrication specifications for every make and model of car . . . and they are service station bibles.

3 Only the finest motor oils and lubricants are used. Sohio products have been the first choice of Ohio motorists for years and are certain to give you dependable performance.

4 Particular care is exercised to see that each part of your car gets the kind and amount of lubricant especially designed for its use.

5 Sohio lubrication equipment is the most modern and efficient available . . . and, wherever you live, you are never far from a Sohio station.

6 Sohio's Lubri-Check lubrication procedure is a watch dog, too—designed to detect signs of mechanical failure and prevent repair bills.

7 The exclusive Sohio "Secretary" installed under your hood if you wish keeps a record of vital car services . . . eliminates guessing . . . tells you and your serviceman what you need as well as what you don't need.

There's no guessing about what Spring Changeover does for your car when you get it at Sohio. You feel the difference . . . smoother, quieter running, easier steering, new life and zip. And you know, too, that when your car leaves a Sohio lubrication it has been carefully checked for any sign of mechanical failure that could prove expensive if not detected. Make your next service stop your Sohio Spring Changeover.
